

Tree Tips & Forest Facts

Weekly forestry columns
Clare Nunamaker, RPF #2606

Self-Pruning Trees	June 26, 2006
The Curlew & Climate Change	November 9, 2005
Missing the Trees	November 2, 2005
Changes Afoot	June 30, 2005
Future Forests	June 23, 2005
Bay Laurel	June 16, 2005
Conservation Easements—Keeping the Forest a Forest	June 9, 2005
Forest Fuels	June 2, 2005
Fire Safety for Fire Season	May 26, 2005
Males, Females, and Your Allergies	May 19, 2005
What a Forester Does	May 12, 2005
Conservation Triage—What's the Biggest Threat?	May 5, 2005
Last-minute Burning	April 28, 2005
Ponderous Ponderosa Pine	April 21, 2005
Remembering Roots	April 14, 2005
Late Planting	April 7, 2005
Coppicing	March 31, 2005
Community Meetings for County Fire Plan	March 24, 2005
Pilot Cuts Proposed for Air Attack Base	March 17, 2005
Taxing Times	March 10, 2005
Water Under The Bridge	March 3, 2005
Keeping Trees Healthy	February 24, 2005
Large Woody Debris	February 17, 2005
Dead Fuels	February 10, 2005
For Teachers—A Week in the Woods	February 3, 2005
Sitka Spruce—The Pest from the West	January 27, 2005
Beyond the Backyard—Norway's Forests	January 20, 2005
A Piece of Peat	January 13, 2005
The Forests of Ireland	January 6, 2005
Ring in the New Year	December 30, 2004
The 1964 Christmas Flood	December 23, 2004
Erosion & Watercourses	December 16, 2004
Erosion & Roads	December 9, 2004
Your Christmas Tree	December 2, 2004
Fire Safe Council Funding for Projects & Planning Nov. 26, 2004	26, 2004
CDF Nursery Reopened and Taking Orders	November 19, 2004
Defensible Space in the Fall	November 12, 2004
Survey & Maintain Your Roads	November 5, 2004
Plants, Phytochromes, and Photoperiods	October 28, 2004
Forest Soils and Water	October 21, 2004
Leave it to Leaves	October 14, 2004
Nary A Drop to Drink	October 7, 2004
Land Use Planning	September 30, 2004
JDSF Bill Vetoed	September 23, 2004
Security Through Chaos	September 16, 2004

The Geysers Fire	September 9, 2004
Fire Season Statistics	September 2, 2004
Finding Firewood	August 26, 2004
The “1,000 Leaves” of Yarrow	August 19, 2004
Bark Beetles in Southern California	August 12, 2004
Fire Suppression & Forest Composition	August 5, 2004
Fire Season	July 22, 2004
A New Director for Forestry & Fire Protection	July 15, 2004
Fire-Resistant Vegetation	July 8, 2004
Removing Fuel Ladders	July 1, 2004
How Defensible is Your Space?	June 24, 2004
Common Ground in Fuels Reduction Reg	June 17, 2004
. THP Fees—The Tightening Regulatory Noose	June 10, 2004
Symbols of Forestry – Boots & Globes	June 3, 2004
Edible Landscaping—Wild Strawberry	May 20, 2004
Biopower—Energy from Biomass	May 13, 2004
Blue Ribbon Fire Commission Report	April 29, 2004
Mendo Co. Fire Safe Council Gets Start-up Grant	April 22, 2004
The Forestland Steward Newsletter is Back!	April 15, 2004
Pets & Wildlife	April 8, 2004
The Understory Dogwood	April 1, 2004
Last-Minute Pruning	March 25, 2004
Roads & Invasive Plants	March 18, 2004
Timberland Conversion – Do You Need a Permit?	March 11, 2004
Biodiversity & Nonnative Invasive Plants	March 4, 2004
Jackson State Forest, State Nurseries, and the Seed Bank	February 26, 2004
“Just” Five Acres? There is no “Just”	February 19, 2004
Class III Watercourses	February 12, 2004
Forestry Institute for Teachers -- Applications Available	February 5, 2004
Finding Common Ground—Fire Exemptions & Intact Forests	January 30, 2004
A Fire Safe Council for You & Me	January 22, 2004
Tree Cookies	January 15, 2004
Whose Trees?	January 8, 2004
The Woodcutter’s Song	December 31, 2003
Funding for Forest Improvement Projects	December 18, 2003
Lichen—Helping Monitor Air Quality	December 11, 2003
That Wonderful Time of the Year	December 4, 2003
Finding Common Ground	November 20, 2003
When is Fire Unnatural?	November 13, 2003
After the Fire...Soil and Water	November 6, 2003
Wildfires and Working With Mother Nature	October 30, 2003
Planting Redwood Stumps	October 23, 2003
Mendocino County’s Fires -- $2,400 an Acre	October 16, 2003
Thimbleberry	October 9, 2003
Budget Ax Hits State Nursery	October 2, 2003
Heads-Up on Grant Programs	September 25, 2003
Pools & Fish	September 18, 2003
Information for Making Wise Decisions	September 11, 2003
The Cost of Fighting Wildfires	September 4, 2003

Tree Planting Grants for Schools	August 21, 2003
“Cool” vs. “Hot” Fires – What’s the Difference?	August 28, 2003
Jackson State Forest—Some Background	August 14, 2003
Silvicultural Systems	August 7, 2003
Fuels Reduction Projects	July 31, 2003
What is Thinning?	July 24, 2003
Is It Old Growth?	July 17, 2003
Lake Arrowhead’s State of Emergency	July 10, 2003
Our Ecological Footprint	July 3, 2003
It’s Time to be Fire Wise	June 26, 2003
Declining Harvests	June 19, 2003
Watercourse Crossings—“And This Too Will Change”	May 29, 2003
Shaded Fuelbreak at RVOEP	May 22, 2003
Why Practice For-Profit Forestry?	May 15, 2003
How Much is Enough? It depends.	May 8, 2003
Saturated Soils and Creep	May 1, 2003
Learning About Roads	April 24, 2003
Western Redbud	April 17, 2003
The Threat of Forestland Conversion	April 10, 2003
Forest Health Emergency in Southern California	April 3, 2003
The Three Legs of Sustainability – Ecological, Social, and Economic	March 27, 2003
Defensible Space	March 20, 2003
Avoid Inside Ditches	March 13, 2003
Forest Stewardship Plans—Implementing Good Intentions	March 6, 2003
Pruning for Aesthetics and Fire Safety	February 25, 2003
Learn About Large Woody Debris	February 20, 2003
Forest Management for the Uninterested	February 13, 2003
The Global Climate Exchange (CCX)	February 6, 2003
Sustainable Harvests at Jackson State Help Landowners	January 30, 2002
Funding for Tree Planting Projects	January 23, 2002
Forest Conversion and Edge Effects	January 16, 2003
What Your Forest Wants	December 19, 2002
Water and Your Christmas Tree	December 12, 2002
Forestry and Conservation	December 5, 2002
Conservation Easements—Proceed with Caution	November 28, 2002
The Landowner and Surveying for Murrelets	November 21, 2002
Time to Order Seedlings	November 14, 2002
One Family’s Forest	November 7, 2002
Getting the Incentives Right	October 31, 2002
The World Beneath Your Feet	October 24, 2002
Is It Sudden Oak Death? Think Horses, Not Zebras	October 17, 2002
Clean Your Culverts	October 10, 2002
Roads and Sediment	October 3, 2002
Black Oak	September 26, 2002
A $147 Million Pound of Cure	September 19, 2002
Sudden Oak Death in Redwood and Doug-fir	September 12, 2002
Low-Maintenance Stream Crossings	September 5, 2002
Sudden Oak Death Training Opportunity	August 29, 2002
When Smoke gets in Your Eyes	August 22, 2002

Fire, Your Home, & Baby Diapers?	August 15, 2002
Coexisting with Fire	August 8, 2002
Fire—Too Much of a Good Thing	August 1, 2002
The Decline of the Forest Industry	July 26, 2002
Plantation Management	July 19, 2002
Exporting Demand	July 12, 2002
Many Trees Doesn't Mean a Healthy Forest	July 5, 2002
Harvesting Levels at Record Low Levels	June 29, 2002
Analysis Paralysis	June 21, 2002
Jackson State Forest Management – Your Opportunity for Input	May 31, 2002
RPFs, LTOs, and LTO Training Workshops	May 24, 2002
Riparian Vegetation	May 17, 2002
Fuelbreaks and Defensible Space	May 10, 2002
Tick Time	May 3, 2002
Pest Detection Form	April 26, 2002
High Plan Costs for Forest Landowners	April 19, 2002
Sudden Oak Death	April 12, 2002
Ground, Ladder and Crown Fuels	April 5, 2002
Look Now for Summer Roads Projects	March 29, 2002
Wildfire Protection and the I-Zone	March 22, 2002
What Is Sustainability?	March 15, 2002
Impacts of Non-Forestry Activities	March 8, 2002
Sudden Oak Death and Redwood	March 1, 2002
Dollars for Community Wildfire Protection	February 22, 2002
Preservation or Conservation—What's the Difference?	February 15, 2002
Old Trees or Old-Growth?	February 8, 2002
Streamside Shade Cover	February 1, 2002
Anadromous Fish	January 25, 2002
Planting – Bareroot or Container?	January 18, 2002
Plantations Here and There	January 11, 2002
“Fun Guy” in the Forest	December 26, 2001
Soil – Like A Sponge	December 19, 2001
Harvesting – A Middle Way	December 12, 2001
Caring for Your Christmas Tree	December 5, 2001
Giving Thanks	November 28, 2001
Time to Winterize Your Roads	November 14, 2001
Winter Road Use	November 7, 2001
Soil Erosion	October 26, 2001
Productive Soil – Like Money in the Bank	October 19, 2001
Road Surface Drainage	October 12, 2001
Harvest of Big, Old Trees –To Ban or Not To Ban?	October 5, 2001
Trying to Do The Right Thing	September 28, 2001
Our Nation's Tragedy and Our Interconnectedness	September 21, 2001
Landowner Objectives	August 31, 2001
Forest Legacy	August 24, 2001
Inactive Forest Management	August 17, 2001
National Fire Plan Dollars and Fire Safe Councils	August 10, 2001
Summer Road Work and Winter Rains	August 3, 2001
More on Sudden Oak Death	July 27, 2001

Sudden Oak Death Hits Mendocino County	July 20, 2001
Chaos in the Forest	July 13, 2001
Connections in the Forest	July 6, 2001
Fighting Fire	June 29, 2001
Hot Fire Season Ahead	June 22, 2001
Solar Energy in Biomass	June 15, 2001
Madrone	June 8, 2001
Shaded Fuel Breaks	June 1, 2001
Fire Safety and Harvesting Laws	May 25, 2001
Fire and Redwoods	May 18, 2001
The Dynamic Forest and Restoration	May 11, 2001
Sudden Oak Death Syndrome Spreads	May 4, 2001
Stream Crossings	April 27, 2001
Invisible Roads	April 20, 2001
Rural Roads Workshop	April 13, 2001
Forest Legacy	April 6, 2001
The Latest on Certification	March 30, 2001
Tax Time for Forest Landowners	March 23, 2001
Forest Canopies and Structural Diversity	March 16, 2001
Why Manage Forests?	March 9, 2001
Rotation Ages	March 2, 2001
Forest Improvement and Jackson State Timber Harvests	February 23, 2001
Pruning and Burning Snow Breakage	February 16, 2001
Endangered Species & California's Wood Imports	February 9, 2001
Energy and The World's Best Solar Collectors	February 2, 2001
Productivity and Thinning	January 26, 2001
The Coastal Redwood	January 19, 2001
Fire Season 2000 and Prescribed Fire	January 12, 2001
Tolerance	January 5, 2001
Succession	December 29, 2000
Your Christmas Tree	December 22, 2000
The 2002 Farm Bill — Your Opportunity for Input!	December 15, 2000
Large Woody Debris—What Is It and Why Should I Care?	December 8, 2000
Certification and the Mendocino Redwood Company	December 1, 2000
Dollars to Improve Your Forest	November 17, 2000
Big Dollars for Watersheds	November 10, 2000
Fall Colors	November 3, 2000
Trees and Genetic Diversity	October 27, 2000
Fish-Friendly Stream Crossings	October 20, 2000
Tanoak	October 13, 2000
Stress Factors for Trees	October 6, 2000
Stress and Forest Health	September 29, 2000
Oak Sudden Death Syndrome	September 22, 2000
What is an acre?	September 15, 2000
The Storrie of a Fire	September 8, 2000
Clearcutting Bill	September 1, 2000
What is EQIP?	August 25, 2000
Salvage Harvest after Fires	August 18, 2000
Start Thinking About Fall Planting	August 11, 2000
Fires Will Happen	August 4, 2000

The Hole in the Headwaters, or Bill & Charity	July 28, 2000
Archaeological Sites	July 21, 2000
Roots, Foliage and Fire	July 14, 2000
Tree bark and Fire	July 7, 2000
Board of Forestry to Meet in Ukiah	June 30, 2000
NIMBY Forests and Forestry	June 23, 2000
Rights and Responsibilities	June 16, 2000
“Spring Cleaning” Checklist for Summer Fires	June 9, 2000
Wildfire and the Roof Over Your Head	June 2, 2000
Watershed Analysis	May 26, 2000
Watershed Assessment	May 19, 2000
Smoke & Fire	May 12, 2000
Fire Cycles	May 5, 2000
Safe Harbor	April 28, 2000
Private Property and Public Trust Values	April 21, 2000
Earth Day	April 14, 2000
The Board of Forestry	April 7, 2000
The Forest Practice Rules	March 31, 2000
Conservation Easements	March 24, 2000
Tanoak Dieback	March 17, 2000
What Is Old-Growth, Anyway?	March 10, 2000
Roads and rolling dips	March 3, 2000
Winter rains, roads and culverts	February 25, 2000
Forestry Education	February 18, 2000
Forests, Harvests and Taxes	February 11, 2000
Silvicultural Systems	February 4, 2000
Cruising and modeling	January 28, 2000
Riparian areas and the harvest plan	January 21, 2000
Roads and erosion	January 14, 2000
Archaeology (missing)	January 1, 2000
Wildlife	12/31/99
An Introduction to the THP and NTMP	12/17/99
Christmas Trees	12/10/99
Time to Buy Seedlings	12/3/99
Certification	11/26/99
How to Find a Forester	11/19/99
Licensed Timber Operators	11/5/99
Road Drainage	10/29/99
Managing to Reduce Fire Risk	10/22/99
Utilization of California Hardwoods	10/15/99
Resources for Forest Landowners	10/5/99
More on Fires	9/29/99
After the Fire—Seedlings	9/22/99
After the Fire—Planting	9/15/99
After the Fire—Logging	9/8/99
A Small Forest Owner's Dilemma	9/1/99
More About Thinning	8/25/99
"Mousing" Owls	8/17/99
Thinning	8/4/99

Fire Suppression and Wildfire	7/99
Buying firewood	7/99
Firewood	7/99
Pressures on Forest Land	June 30, 1999
The oldest trees--Bristlecone Pine	June 23, 1999
Snags	June 18, 1999
The New World's Tallest Tree	June 11, 1999
Silviculture	June 4, 1999
Foresters and Water Quality	May 28, 1999
Cost Share Programs for Forest Landowners	May 19, 1999
The Pacific Dogwood	May 5, 1999
Regulation Basics for Private Forests	April 20, 1999
The Forest is more than the Trees	April 14, 1999
The Role of Fire	April 7, 1999
The Douglas-fir	March 30, 1999
What is an RPF?	March 24, 1999
What is a Forester	March 17, 1999
Forests and Climate	March 9, 1999
Sugar Pine	March 2, 1999
Soils, Erosion, and Foresters	February 23, 1999
Landscaping and defensible space	February 16, 1999
Defensible Space	February 10, 1999
Winter Work	February 2, 1999
Erosion and Roads	January 26, 1999
What is a Watershed?	January 19, 1999
Drought and Forest Health	January 12, 1999
Timberland Ownership Facts	January 3, 1999
About Christmas Trees	December 23, 1998